

İhsan YILMAZ

İhsan Yılmaz was born in Giresun in 1971 and graduated from the Faculty of Communication at Istanbul University. He began his journalism career in 1991 as a reporter for Yeni Günaydın newspaper. Throughout his career, he worked as a reporter at Star TV, Deputy Director of News Research at Milliyet newspaper, Chief Editor at A Haber, News Director at Habertürk TV, and Istanbul News Director at TRT. He holds a permanent press card.

He has served the Turkish Journalists Association in various capacities, including Member of the Supervisory Board, Chair of the Supervisory Board, and Treasurer. He currently serves as Vice President of the Turkish Journalists Association.

For many years, he worked as a trainer in the “Local Media” seminars organized under the coordination of the Turkish Journalists Association. He delivered seminars on “Television Journalism” and “The Expectations of Newsrooms from the Local Press.”

His articles have been published in journalism training books issued by the Konrad Adenauer Stiftung. He has delivered lectures and conferences on journalism and television broadcasting at various universities and has contributed to numerous documentary productions.

He has served for many years on the juries of the Turkish Journalists Association’s Achievement Awards and the Sedat Simavi Awards. He is also the author of a short story collection titled The Unexamined Woman.